Title: Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav

Background: The Cultural Association, in collaboration with the NSS and NCC units, organized the grand cultural event, "75th Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav," to celebrate the 75th Independence Day of India on 13th August 2022. The event was held with great enthusiasm and fervour. The event commenced with the arrival of the Chief Guest, Shri. Sanjay Patil, along with other dignitaries. The Botany department's book, highlighting the rich natural heritage of our country. "75 Common Trees of Mumbai," was formally released by the Chief Guest. The evening was filled with captivating performances centred around the theme of 'Patriotism.' The Marathi Vagmai Mandal presented a thought-provoking play titled "Hashtag DeshBhakti," which left the audience deeply moved. The NSS unit of the college staged a skit named "Azadi Ka Arth," highlighting the significance of independence in our lives. Haroon Akhtar, a talented college graduate, mesmerized the audience with his soulful singing, evoking a sense of pride and patriotism. The highlight of the event was the singing and dancing competition, where participants from various departments showcased their talents and love for the nation. The performances were filled with energy, creativity, and a deep sense of patriotism. It was a tough competition, and the participants gave their best to impress the judges and the audience. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of gratitude delivered by Ms. Shivani Radhakrishnan, the Cultural Secretary of the Association. The ceremony ended on a high note, with everyone standing in unison to sing the National Anthem, symbolizing the unity and pride we have for our nation.

Objective: The event was organized on the occasion of the 75th Independence Day. Participants from different departments of the college were asked to showcase 'Patriotism' themed performances and compete against each other.

Location: Quadrangle, SIES College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Sion West

Target audience/participants with expected number: All degree college students and staff

Date: 13th August 2022

Outcome: The event was a resounding success as it brought together all the departments of the college to celebrate the 75th year of our independence. It instilled a sense of patriotism and pride among the participants and the audience, leaving a lasting impression on everyone's hearts. The event successfully achieved its objective of celebrating the 75th Independence Day and fostering a sense of patriotism among the participants and attendees.

Title of Workshop: "Anybody Can Sing"

Background: The "Anybody can Sing" workshop was organized by the Cultural Association at SIES College of Arts, Science, and Commerce. The workshop spanned across eight days, from 26th August to 8th September 2022, with each session lasting three hours. The workshop took place in the college's mini auditorium, and on the first day, Mr. Haroon Sir, the instructor, began with a brief introduction. He emphasized that everyone can be a singer with consistent practice and dedication. Over the course of the workshop, participants learned various aspects of vocal improvement. On the second day, Mr. Haroon taught posture, breathing techniques, and resonance, providing exercises for participants to practice at home. The importance of using the entire body as an instrument and understanding vocal wavelengths was covered on the third day, with insightful video demonstrations. Day four focused on vowel placements, mouth shaping, and vocal projection. Participants also had the opportunity to observe MRI scans of vocalists and gain insights into how the vocal cords function. The fifth day delved into important singing techniques, where participants watched videos of genre performers and learned how to incorporate their learnings from previous days to enhance their singing. On day six, participants were introduced to musical terminologies such as reading music sheets, vocal phrasing, harmonies, and dynamics, providing a foundation in music knowledge. The seventh day featured a session conducted by Anirudh from Mr. Haroon's team, who taught the basics of music production, theory, rhythm, and song structure. Participants were also introduced to various apps they could use for producing songs on their own. The final day of the workshop was marked by solo performances from each participant, who invited their friends to watch as "performers." Following the solo performances, the band named Chutney delivered an amazing performance.

The workshop witnessed a remarkable attendance of approximately 85% or more on all eight days. Participants enjoyed the sessions and actively engaged with Mr. Haroon seeking guidance and clarifying doubts. Quiz sections were conducted after each session, further enhancing the learning experience. Feedback from participants was overwhelmingly positive, highlighting the knowledgeable and fun nature of the workshop. The participants appreciated the smooth organization of the event and commended Mr. Haroon and his team for their approachability and collaboration.

Objective: To improve vocals through exercises and techniques and provide an introduction to mixing and producing songs

Title of workshop: "Let's Get Dancing".

Background: Organized a workshop on 12th November 2022, led by experienced dance instructor(s) such as Mr. Sangram Keshari Barik, to introduce participants to various dance forms, provide step-by-step guidance, and facilitate practice sessions to enhance their dancing skills. "Let's Get Dancing" marked the first official event organized by the Cultural Association in 2022. This workshop was designed for the students of SIES College of Arts, Science, and Commerce, aiming to introduce them to new dance forms, provide a platform for learning, and allow them to showcase and enhance their dancing skills.

The event started with the circulation of online registration forms through Google Forms. The Public Relations (PR) desk was set up on the 7th, 9th, and 10th of November 2022 to facilitate the registration process. The workshop was conducted by Mr. Sangram Keshari Barik, a former contestant of Dance Odisha Dance and co-founder of 'The Infinite Moves,' along with Ms. Chanchal Patra, who accompanied him as a part of the workshop team.

Mr. Sangram imparted his knowledge and expertise by teaching a variety of dance forms and moves to the participants. The students were intrigued and enthusiastic about learning the routines and showcased their skills with great energy and enthusiasm. The workshop was conducted in two batches. The first batch took place from 12 pm to 2 pm, followed by a half-hour break. The second phase commenced at 3 pm and continued till 5 pm, maintaining the same invigorating atmosphere as the first session. The Cultural Secretary, Ms. Shivani Radhakrishna, expressed her gratitude with a heartfelt vote of thanks, bringing the workshop to a close.

Objective: The main objective of the workshop was to introduce and provide a platform for the participants to learn something new, outside of academics, and showcase and hone their dancing skills.

Location: SIES College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Sion West

Date: 12th November 2022

Attendees: 80 participants
